(1) state the reason for requesting the waiver; and

(2) sign and verify the waiver form.

(d) The auditor of state may grant a person's request for a waiver for any of the following reasons:

(1) The person does not currently have a savings or checking account and is unable to establish such an account within the geographic area of the person's primary business location without payment of a service fee. The person must submit with the waiver request a written statement by the person's financial institution of the person's inability to establish an account without the payment of a fee.

(2) The person's primary business location is too remote to have access to a financial institution where a direct deposit can be made.

(3) The person's financial institution is unable to accept an electronic deposit or withdrawal. The person must submit with the waiver request a written statement by the person's financial institution that the financial institution is unable to accept an electronic deposit or withdrawal.

(4) The auditor of state determines that the facts of the particular case warrant a waiver of the requirement of subsection (a).

The auditor of state shall establish a waiver form consistent with this subsection.

(e) A contract entered into by the state must contain a provision under which the person contracting with the state specifically authorizes the auditor of state to make all payments to the person by direct deposit by electronic funds transfer, subject to the waiver provisions of subsection (d).

SECTION 2. IC 4-15-5.9-3 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005]: Sec. 3. (a) Notwithstanding any other law, rule, or custom, but subject to subsections (c) and (d), a state employee shall authorize in writing the direct deposit by electronic funds transfer of the employee's earnings. The employee's written authorization must designate a financial institution and an account number to which the payment is to be credited.

(b) After obtaining the authorization required by subsection (a), the auditor of state shall deposit the state employee's earnings in the financial institution and account designated by the employee each time a payroll distribution is issued on the employee's behalf.

(c) A state employee who does not wish to have the employee's earnings deposited by electronic funds transfer may request the auditor of state to grant a waiver of the requirement of subsection

(a). The employee must:

- (1) state the reason for requesting the waiver; and
- (2) sign and verify the waiver form.

(d) The auditor of state may grant a state employee's request for a waiver for any of the following reasons:

(1) The state employee does not currently have a savings or checking account and is unable to establish such an account within the geographic area of the employee's primary residence without payment of a service fee. The employee must submit with the waiver request a written statement by the employee's financial institution of the employee's inability to establish an account without the payment of a fee.

(2) The state employee's primary residence or place of work is too remote to have access to a financial institution where a direct deposit can be made.

(3) The state employee's financial institution is unable to accept an electronic deposit or withdrawal. The employee must submit with the waiver request a written statement by the employee's financial institution stating that the financial institution is unable to accept an electronic deposit or withdrawal.

(4) The state employee suffers from a disability:

(A) that would impede the employee from gaining access to electronically deposited funds; and

(B) that is documented by a health care provider (as defined in IC 34-18-2-14).

(5) The auditor of state determines that the facts of the particular case warrant a waiver of the requirement of subsection (a).

The auditor of state shall establish a waiver form consistent with this subsection.

SECTION 3. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005] (a) This SECTION applies to a person who entered into a contract with the state before July 1, 2005.

(b) Notwithstanding IC 4-13-2-14.8, as added by this act, a person must do either of the following not later than June 30, 2006:

(1) Authorize in writing the direct deposit by electronic funds transfer of all payments from the state to the person as required by IC 4-13-2-14.8, as added by this act.

(2) Request the auditor of state to grant a waiver of the

1 requirement for direct deposit by electronic funds transfer of
2 all payments to the person, as provided in IC 4-13-2-14.8, as
3 added by this act.

4 (c) This SECTION expires January 1, 2007.

5 SECTION 4. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2005] (a) This SECTION
6 applies to a state employee hired before July 1, 2005.

7 (b) Notwithstanding IC 4-15-5.9-3, as added by this act, a state
8 employee must do either of the following not later than June 30,
9 2006:

10 (1) Authorize in writing the direct deposit by electronic funds
11 transfer of the state employee's earnings as required by 12 IC 4-15-5.9-3, as added by this act.

13 (2) Request the auditor of state to grant a waiver of the
14 requirement for direct deposit by electronic funds transfer of 15 the state employee's earnings, as provided in IC 4-15-5.9-3, as
16 added by this act.

17 (c) This SECTION expires January 1, 2007.
